Dear Valued Customer,

USA Food and Drug Administration (FDA)

We can confirm that Fluon® PFA resins, when used as coatings or components of coatings for articles intended for repeated food-contact use in accordance with good manufacturing practice, are compliant with the compositional requirements for FDA regulation 21CFR 177.1550.

Only processed PFA, sintered at high temperatures common in the industry, complies with FDA regulations.

The Chemicals Company of AGC has defined its mission as “Chemistry for a Blue Planet”, and the Fluon® products are in furtherance of this mission.

If you have any questions or need additional information, please contact me at (610) 423-8112. Thank you for your business, and we look forward to continue working with you as one of our important customers.

Sincerely,
